NEWS OF COURTS

Suits Filed in Circuit Court.
Disaffiliation over a horse trade has resulted in Mrs. Amanda Acree filing suit against John W. Doyle. She alleges in July that the defendant sold her a mare, alleged to be sound, with a Red Wilkes colt, registered. Now she alleges it has developed that the colt is not a Red Wilkes colt and not eligible to registration. She asks that the trade be annulled and that $100 damages be awarded.
Deeds Filed.
E. W. Whittemore to A. R. Robinson, property in Rowlandtown, $1.
A. Y. Martin, trustee, to the Metropolitan Realty company, two lots in the Fountain park addition, $2,715.
C. H. Brothers to Joseph Tucker, property on Harrison street between Tenth and Eleventh streets, $800.
In Police Court.
Monday will be observed as a holiday by Judge D. A. Cross and there will not be any session of police court. The docket this morning was: Breach of ordinance—A. Kruger, dismissed; Louis Pollock, continued until September 6. Breach of peace—Florence Grear, colored, $15; John Marshall, $15.
Return from Funeral.
Jerome W. Smith, foreman of the Illinois Central blacksmith shop, and son, John Smith, and J. E. Smith have returned from Louisville, where they were called to attend the funeral and burial of their nephew, Lonnie Smith. Mr. Smith was 24 years old, and died after an illness of typhoid fever. He was born in Paducah, but had not resided in Paducah for a number of years. The funeral and burial took place Wednesday. Mr. Smith is survived by a young wife and an infant child.
